The system requirements are minimum: It is..A part-time employment scheme could be put in place in the Murray Catchment. CHAIRMAN Mark Aitchison said it was a matter of when, not if, a rehabilitation scheme should be put in place for the Murray-Darling River system. He said it was important to get the details right before the next drought hit and there was a "real chance" that a proposal could be launched ahead of the next drought. Mr Aitchison said if the state government did not act, it would be taking an "extremely dangerous position" by leaving the Commonwealth to act. He said that decision making must be shared between the Federal and State Governments. "On (former Opposition leader) Malcolm Turnbull's watch and Tony Abbott's watch they've talked about rolling the Murray-Darling scheme up or waiting until 2020," he
